

ENGR489: User Testing Questions

1. Can you please move to the number detection task
2. Can you please read the instructions and move to the non-encrypted workflow.
3. Please draw a number
4. Can you please clear the number and draw a different number
5. Please send the image to AI
6. Now move onto encrypted and draw a number
7. Please encrypt the number and then send it to AI
8. Please enter the incorrect password
9. Now please enter in the correct password and observe the decrypted output
10. Please now move onto the face detection tool
11. Please read the instructions and select an image from the provided template in the non-encrypted workflow.
12. Now please send the image to AI and observe the output.
13. Now please move to the encrypted workflow and select an image
14. Please now enter a password and encrypt.
15. Please now send it to the AI
16. Please decrypt the output from the AI and observe the output
17. Please press the save button and observe the saved image.
18. Now please move to the Border your image tool
19. Can you please read the instructions and move to the non-encrypted workflow.
20. Please select an image from the provided template, write a password and press the encrypt button
21. Please now click the reset button and perform the previous steps again to get up to this point.
22. Now that you have encrypted the image again can you please now send it to the AI
23. Please now decrypt the output and observe the outputted model.
24. Please now move to the encrypted workflow, select a image from the template, enter a password, encrypt it and send it to the AI.
25. Now that you have received the encrypted result, please enter in the wrong password.
26. Please now enter in the correct password and observe the result.
27. Please now reset the workflow
28. Done